

WHO WE ARE

Christian Health Association of Lesotho (CHAL) is a non-profit making organisation registered in 1974 under the societies act of 1967 of the Kingdom of Lesotho. It is an association of six-member-churches, namely; Anglican Church in Lesotho, Assemblies of God, Church of the Bible Covenant, Lesotho Evangelical Church in Southern Africa, Roman Catholic Church, and the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Southern Africa established to provide comprehensive health services in Lesotho. CHAL is therefore, a network of churches-owned health facilities constituting 8 hospitals, 4 nurses training institutions and 71 health centres, most of which are situated in rural and hard to reach areas and account for about 40% healthcare in all the 10 districts of Lesotho.

OUR PARTNERS

Government of Lesotho: CHAL has been in partnership with the Government of Lesotho for over 10 years currently. This partnership is guided by the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) whereby CHAL provides services to Basotho freely at health centres and on highly subsidized fees at hospitals in return for subvention.

Jhpiego: CHAL has partnered with Jhpiego under KHANYA which is a three-year project funded by USAID to strengthen voluntary medical male circumcision (VMMC) services. The project is implemented in 5 districts of Lesotho.

Emory University: CHAL has partnered with Emory University to conduct need assessment to strengthen capacity and clinical services of CHAL in the three crucial clinical areas of HIV, mental illness and maternal and child healthcare.

Mission Statement

CHAL exist to provide equitable, quality and sustainable health care services to Basotho.

The churches in a non-profit making manner are committed to see to it that quality health services reach those who have least access through appropriate technologies, in the spirit of mutual trust and cooperation as a tangible expression of Christ's vision to love our neighbors as ourselves.
